

National Centre of Science Communicators (NCSC) in collaboration with National Council of Science Museums, Kolkata and Vigyan Prasar, New Delhi shall hold a National Conference on Science Communication: Addressing Womens Issues during January 7-8, 2012 at the auditorium of Birla Industrial & Technological Museum, 19A, Gurusaday Road, Kolkata 7000019.

This two-day long national conference shall be attended by delegates from all over the country to deliberate on womens issues of critical importance in todays societies. It will provide a great opportunity for local stakeholders including science communicators and NGOs to benefit from the discussions/deliberations during the conference and also to share individual experiences and viewpoints.

In this connection, you are cordially invited to attend the conference along with your colleagues on the above dates. A tentative programme is attached herewith for kind perusal.

As the seating capacity of our auditorium is limited, an early confirmation of your participation in the conference will be highly appreciated. Kindly confirm over email to: g_seal@bitm.gov.in or director@bitm.gov.in . Please feel free to contact Sh. G. Seal (9432382655) for any further queries.
